	Approved For-Release 2002/05/06 : C	A-RDP57-00384R001300080046-2
	OGC Has Reviewed	A-RDP57-00384R001300080046-2
	Besutive for A & H	26 April 194	)
	Assistant General Counsel
STATINTL	Report of Accident .
	l. The evidence in this case appears impossible to determine who was absence of proof that the audident was negligence cannot be imputed to him.	is of such a nature that it at fault. In view of the coursed by the CIA driver, the
	2. In view of the above,	alain for reinkurse-	STATOTHE
	ment for the damages suffered to his co	r must be rejected.	STATOTHE
STATINTL'	and finds that both of them sheed on the is supported by a witness record of being one of the so give weight to his statement. From the reconcile the two stories as both of the	eir respective stories. While she was a passenger in his car, st careful drivers in CIA would facts, it appears impossible to see are godin plausible.	STATOTHE
	4. It should noted that, alti- 4 March 1948, no attempt was made to go until 9 April, and the final report was This presents too great a gap in time five times of more than a month. The investibilis matter, stated that it was approximated that he was given the problem tremedied.	not rendered until 19 April. or the proper interrogation of well have grown hazy after a gating officer, when queried on	]
25	5X1A  Attachment: File on Accident Case of	Walter L. Pforsheimer	••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••
	WLPforzheimer:blo		